NAVIGATING SPECIAL EDUCATION LAW

NAVIGATING THE INS AND OUTS OF SPECIAL EDUCATION LAW
Wednesday, May 23, from 6:30 – 8:00 pm***
NSYMCA X-Zone – FREE and open to the public

The complexity of federal, state and local laws, and intricate regulations and policies governing special education can lead many parents of students with special needs to feel overwhelmed and confused. Special education attorneys Jennifer Hansen and Lara Cleary of Hansen & Cleary LLC will help you cut through this complexity and understand the ins and outs of special education law.

Goals of the Presentation

Our goal is to provide the information you need to make informed decisions as equal partners in your child's education.

Experienced Attorneys

Hansen & Cleary LLC is a boutique law practice focusing on the representation of children and families, individuals with disabilities, medical and mental health professionals, private schools and other non-profit agencies in the Chicagoland area and throughout the state of Illinois.

School District Perspective

Lauren Schulman, Director of Student Services for Northbrook/Glenview School District #30, will also be on hand to offer suggestions and answer questions.
